EXPERIENCE ALASKA

What would it be like to pastor a United Methodist Church in a small Alaskan town where 70% of the population claims no religion at all? What would it be like to serve the only traditional protestant church in this town (it is over 300 miles to the next United Methodist congregation)? What would it be like to live in an area where the temperatures can reach- 40 F, and stay there for weeks on end? Find out Thursday, March 1st, 6:30 p.m. here at East Ridge UMC when the Reverends Joe-D and Christina Dowlingsoka visit us from true outposts for Christ on the frontier—Willow United Methodist Church, Willow, Alaska. Come here stories of what it is like to live off the grid, surviving mostly on what you can hunt and fish. Come find out how Christ is being proclaimed in such a wild and beautiful place!!! Desserts will follow. Please invite friends!!!
